

4D Training

Approved Persons

What are they and what are their responsibilities?

Who would benefit?

This session is suitable for those who do not perform an Approved person role currently but may have to in the future. It will also be suitable for those whose job requires them to assist Approved persons in the performance of their roles.

Objective

By the end of this workshop delegates will understand the role and responsibilities of Approved persons.

Content

- What are Approved persons, and who approves them?
- Is there one type of AP or several?
- How does an AP become approved?
- What must I consider if I am being promoted into an AP role?
- Why does the company need them?
- What difference do they make?
- What do they have to do and how can I help them in my current role?

Duration

2 hours

Pre-requisites

None