

4D Training

Introduction to Contingency Insurance for Frontline Roles

Who would benefit?

This course is for insurers, technicians, brokers, claims handlers and other staff who want a technical foundation in some of the major classes of Contingency insurance.

Objective

On completion of the course the delegates will:

- Understand the main categories of contingency risk
- Understand and be able to deploy various relevant policies to insure the risks
- Appreciate underwriting considerations
- Be familiar with some of the significant policy forms

Content

- Event Cancellation
 - Sports
 - Entertainment
 - Venues
 - Infrastructure and Transport
 - Timetable
 - Experience and safety
 - Non-appearance of stars performers/actors/players
 - Boycotts, terrorism, war
- Television Broadcasting
- Weather Risks
- Catastrophe Exposures
- Other Sport Related Exposures, e.g. hole-in-one
- Films
 - Film Producers' Indemnity
 - Completion Guarantee
- Other Risks Including:
 - Extended warranty
 - Residual value
 - Multiple births
 - Prize indemnity
 - Loss of license
 - Archaeological digs
- The Ones That Went Wrong
 - Computer Leasing
 - Film Finance

Duration

One day